Highlights by area of Hull:

1. Campus
2. City Centre
3. Fruit Market \(Marina\)
4. Newland Avenue
5. Princes Avenue

Campus:

Lunch:

Canham Turner

Canham Turner is the on-campus canteen. It provides multiple full meals, often including a roast! It also has a soup selection, salad bar, baked potato stall, street food, a budget option and fresh deserts.

On campus cafes:

Wilde's Café

Located in the East side of Canham Turner this is a great post-lunch stop to grab a quick coffee on the way to your next session. There's extra seating in here too so a sandwich or salad can also be enjoyed here.

The Library Café

Our Brynmor Jones Library has a spacious cafe on the ground floor that offers sandwiches, paninis and various salads. For dessert there's a selection of pastries, cakes and chocolates to go with a coffee or tea.

Pubs/bars:

Sanctuary (Wetherspoons) - <https://hulluniunion.com/places/sanc>

Sanctuary (often shortened to Sanc) is our local student bar located within the Student Central building. It has large beer garden and runs events most nights.

Old Grey Mare - <https://www.greenekinginns.co.uk/hotels/east-riding-yorkshire/old-grey-mare>

The Old Grey Mare is the physics department unofficial student bar, located across the road from the main entrance it has a flaming grill and a beer garden to relax in after a hard day of talks.

Misc:

Spar

It feels a bit silly to put Spar on our list of campus highlights but it's worth mentioning our convenient on-campus shop located in the Students Union just in case you need some snacks in between sessions or if you're staying on campus it's got most of your basic amenities if you've forgotten a toothbrush or shower gel. It also has two self-serve coffee stations to make lattes, cappuccinos, americanos (etc) with a number of different syrups (although they don't have any alternative milk options) just in case the lines are a bit long in our suggested cafes.

City Centre:

Cafes:

Hearth - <https://www.hearthfamily.co.uk/>

Opposite the Minster, you can find Hearth Restaurant and Bakery. Sit outside and enjoy Trinity Square and the view of old town. The Bakery offers breakfast, brunch and lunch alongside a lovely selection of fresh bakes and breads. Try the fries with chip spice aioli for a taste of Hull.

42nd East Bakehouse - <https://www.42ndeastbakehouse.com/>

St. Stephens' newest addition is a sweet place to be. Boasting a cozy atmosphere, a variety of tasty treats, and a great selection of drinks (think lotus lattes and bueno milkshakes) this is the perfect place to visit before heading into or out of town.

Restaurants:

Trinity Market - <https://www.trinitymarkethull.co.uk/>

Trinity Market houses a wide selection of street food from different cuisines. It also has it's own micro-brewery and bar! On Thursday nights, the market stays open late for live music – check <https://www.trinitymarkethull.co.uk/events/> for the line-up.

Pho36 - <https://www.facebook.com/p/Pho36-Hull-100063621570399/>

Authentic Vietnamese food with vegan options and one of your first stops on the bus into town. We'd recommend the BBQ pork belly with some summer rolls and fried prawns on the side. The owner and all the staff are super friendly too so if you're still not sure what to have, they're the people to ask!

Pubs/bars:

Sailmaker's Arms - <https://www.thesailmakersarms.com/>

On the edge of Hull's Old Town you can find the Sailmaker's Arms, a friendly pub serving classic drinks and locally sourced ale which are perfect to enjoy in its sun-trap courtyard. It has a large menu of freshly cooked food, including a Pie Minister!

Brain Jar - <https://www.thebrainjarbar.com/>

If you're more of a cocktail fan, try The Brain Jar (closed Monday and Tuesday). They have an extensive selection of cocktails (including alcohol-free options) alongside a menu of pizza and small plates.

Misc:

Paragon arcade:

Close to the train station and just off the main high street, you'll find the Paragon Arcade, a covered walkway with a selection of cafes and restaurants. You can find a deli, pizza, tapas, café and Japanese food. Keep an eye out for the Asian street food store Salt and Pepper Club, which has become a staple for a lot of our postgrads!

Fruit Market (Marina):

Across the A63, you'll find the Marina and Fruit Market, a lovely place to spend time with a collection of independent shops, cafes and restaurants. While technically in town, the Fruit Market has so many nice places we thought it deserved its own section.

Cafes:

Next Door - <https://www.instagram.com/nextdoorhull/?hl=en>

If you head down Humber Street towards the Deep you'll find Next Door, a lovely café offering a mix of fresh, healthy food alongside more sweet treats that are sure to keep you going throughout the day.

Thieving Harry's - <https://www.thievingharrys.co.uk/>

For a bigger meal try Thieving Harry's (closed Wednesday and Thursday), an eclectically decorated eatery with all-day breakfast/brunch and a seasonal menu. On sunny days they also offer outdoor seating for drinks, with gorgeous views of the marina.

Restaurants:

Bert's Pizza and Gelato - <https://bertspizzeria.co.uk/hull-restaurant/>

Bert's Pizzeria and Gelato serves exactly what its name suggests – some of the best wood-fired pizza and authentic Italian gelato in Hull.

Humber Fish Co. – <https://humberfishco.co.uk/>

If you're craving seafood, then this is the place to be with fresh, UK sourced fish served every day.

Pubs/bars:

Taphouse - <https://www.taphousehull.co.uk/taphouse>

Taphouse is a brewpub specialising in craft beers and ciders with a side of Pan-Asian Street food. In the main room you can find board games or head into the back to find the Boardroom, a second bar with shuffleboard and virtual darts (pre-booking is recommended.)

The Minerva - <https://minerva-hull.co.uk/>

Located on both the Marina and river fronts, The Minerva is a traditional pub with one of the most iconic locations in Hull. It also features the smallest pub room in Britain.

Newland Avenue:

Newland Avenue is close to campus with a large array of shops, restaurants and cafes. Most places offer outdoor seating so it's a great place to hang out in the evening Sun. This is also where the 104 and 5 bus routes will take you so if you're staying in town, you could get off early to grab something on the way into campus! A fun option for some evening activities is to go out to eat on Newland then walk down to Queens pub for a couple then continue to the bars down Princes Avenue.

Cafes:

The Barista Coffee and Kitchen - <https://www.thebaristacafe.co.uk/>

A super cute, independent cafe with vegetarian and vegan options. Great breakfast and brunch menu served until 3pm. The Barista House Benedict is our favourite although the Barista House Royale is a close second!

Planet Coffee - https://www.facebook.com/PlanetcoffeeHULL?locale=en_GB

About halfway way down Newland Avenue you will find Planet Coffee, a cosy local independent coffee shop offering coffee, tea, sandwiches, cakes and more!

Restaurants:

Level - <https://www.levelhull.co.uk/>

A huge selection of classic Italian choices as well as burgers and lots of cocktails. A great place for lunch or evening drinks and dinner. The vegan, vegetarian and gluten free options are also super tasty and outdoor seating if the weathers nice!

Sleepers - <https://www.sleepersbar.com/hull>

Located next to the elevated trainline Sleepers provides a wide range of great food from tapas style small plates to Sunday roasts. They have a great selection of beers and wines, as well as many cocktails. We recommend the hand stretched stone bake pizzas!

Pubs/bars:

Roots Rum Shack - <https://rootsrumshack.com/>

Roots is great for some post conference drink! A huge selection of cocktails and your classic beers bottled and on tap. We recommend the Tiki Mojito but they also offer the choice between 8 different flavours of mojito and many other Caribbean inspired cocktails! If you get hungry, they also do some great Caribbean food!

People's Republic - <http://thepeoplesrepublic.co.uk/>

This small bar is great for a relaxing drink after a hard day's work. Owned by a member of the Beautiful South (a Hull-born band) People's Republic serves lots of craft beer, with weekly specials and ever-changing drafts.

Princes Avenue:

Princes Avenue (or as it's colloquially called: Prinny) is similar to Newland Avenue in vibes. The main difference is that there's a much larger selection of bars and restaurants here as opposed to cafes and shops, so this is a great place to barhop in the evenings! It's also on the 104 and 5 bus route so getting back into town or back to campus is easy as the buses all go regularly from stops all down the length of the street!

Cafes:

The Corner Cafe + Bistro - <https://www.facebook.com/p/The-Corner-Cafe-and-Bistro-100089701284337/>

A super cute little cafe and bistro about halfway down Prinny. They do your classic cafe options like coffees, breakfasts and paninis but they also offer more hot food options like burgers, pasta dishes, wines and cocktails.

Caffe Gelato - caffegelatoonline.com

Caffe Gelato is a great artisanal gelato/coffee shop that provides great Bistro food. Try their Hull roasted beans and amazing stone baked pizzas, then treat yourself to an amazing bowl of fresh sorbet!

Restaurants:

Thai House - <https://thaihousehull.com/index.html>

A huge menu of authentic Thai food made by Thai chefs. All dishes are made fresh to order so substitutions and spice levels are easy to accommodate for. They also have separate gluten free and vegan menus and an allergen booklet for restricted diets. All of their desserts are delicious too, we'd recommend the Kluay Tod (Thai coconut and banana fritter with ice cream) and a freshly made Thai tea to go with it.

Marrakech Avenue - <https://marrakech-ave.co.uk/>

Amazing home-cooked Moroccan cuisine in a restaurant with a genuine Moroccan atmosphere. We recommend trying their signature dish of Lamb Tagine!

Pubs/bars:

Accomplice - <https://accomplicehull.co.uk/>

A cocktail and wine bar right in the hub of Prinny, they also serve food, but the atmosphere is more suited to drinks and some snacks. It's next door to Pave which we also recommend for some evening drinks.

Atom Bar - <https://atombeers.com/pages/hull-bar>

Is a perfect bar for those that want to try locally brewed beers. Many of the beers brewed by Atom are named for physics concepts and have previously worked alongside the University of Hull. We highly recommend the Venn Lager (named for Hull-born mathematician John Venn) or the Neutron Star stout!
